

SIERRA ARMY DEPOT

GEORGE E. RAY Garrison Manager

Mr. Ray was selected as the Garrison Manager in October 2008. In his role as Garrison Manager, he is responsible for leading base operations activities including: Public Works; Logistics; Risk Management; Morale, Welfare & Recreation; Safety; and Force Protection.

Mr. Ray was commissioned in 1969 as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Air Force. His tours of duty included three assignments in the United States, England and Republic of South Vietnam.

Following military service, Mr. Ray entered the Civil Service at Grand Forks Air Force Base, North Dakota. His work assignments include Deputy Morale Support Officer, Chief Community Financial Management, Assistant Director Community and Family Activities, Director Community Activities, Chief Military Consolidate Base Personnel Office, and Deputy Chief and Chief Morale, Welfare and Recreation.

Mr. Ray's civil service assignments included working for the Navy in Naples, Italy; the Army in Bremerhaven, Garlstedt, and Mannheim, Germany; and the Air Force in North Dakota.

Mr. Ray's civilian education consists of a Bachelor of Science in Education from Tennessee State University and a Master of Arts in Psychology from Ball State University.

Mr. Ray's military education consists of Sustaining Base Leadership and Management (SBLM) Program, Director Personnel and Community Activities Course, Air Force Financial Management Officers Course, Navy Recreation Management Systems Course and Army Special Services Officer Course. As a civilian, Mr. Ray's education consists of Organizational Leadership Effectiveness and the Depot and Arsenal Executive Leadership Program.

Mr. Ray is married and has two children and one grandchild.